Public Service Commission Circular Letter: 02/2024

To all the Secretaries to the Ministries.

Taking action with regard to the information published in print or any other media

The Public Service Commission has decided to notify all the Secretaries to the Ministries to submit a report to the Public Service Commission relating to any matter which demands the attention regarding the officers over whom the Public Service Commission holds the Disciplinary Authority, when such information is published in print or any other media.

02. You are kindly informed to take action as per the above decision.
